

SECURITY INDUSTRIES AUTHORITY

Mr. Paul Kingston Isari- LLB Registrar & CEO PNG Security Industries Authority

Mr. Isari was a career Police officer who joined the Royal PNG Constabulary as a probationary constable soon after graduating from the Tusbab High school in the Madang province. And worked in various branches of the police department in 18 of the 19 provinces in Papua New Guinea. This includes a stint with the Marine Police qualifying as a NAUI and PADI certified Open Water SCUBA diver than later with the Police Headquarters logistics branch at Konedobu as the Transport Sgt Major. Thereafter he made his way up the rank and file over the years until reaching the rank of Police Chief inspector. He holds a Bachelor of Law Degree from the University of PNG and was admitted to the Bar to practice law in the National and the Supreme Courts of Papua New Guinea. And his is a current member of the PNG Law Society.

And has job experiences with the Public Prosecutor's Office and the Solicitor General's Office dealing with civil and criminal litigation matters and was also attached with the Australian Federal Police (AFP) under the ECP programme. He has attended overseas course in the Proceeds of Crime and Anti Money Laundering with the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) at the Fiji Police Academy, Nasowa Fiji islands.

He was the Senior Legal Officer at the Police Headquarters Konedobu, Port Moresby, dealing with Judicial Review (Administrative appeal matters), Torts and criminal law matters until he was appointed as the Registrar and CEO of the Security Industries Authority (SIA) by the Security industries Council. Mr. Isari holds a Directors Certificate from the PNGID (PNG Institute of Directors) and is a current member of the PNG Institute of Directors. He can be contacted on registrar@sia.gov.pg